3 AMENDMENT AND BINDING NATURE

3.1 The body corporate may substitute, amend, repeal, or add to the management rules subject to and in accordance with the provisions of section 10 of the Act.

3.2 A member must take all reasonable steps to ensure compliance with the conduct rules in force in terms of section 10(2)(b) of the Act by any tenant or other occupant of any section or exclusive use area, including the member's employees, guests, visitors and family members.

4 SERVICE ADDRESSES

4.1 The body corporate must, from time to time, determine the address that is its domicilium citandi et executandi in terms of section 3(1)(o) of the Act, provided that such service address must be —

4.1.1 the physical address of a section in the scheme;

4.1.2 the physical address of a duly appointed managing agent or administrator; or

4.1.3 another physical address within the magisterial district in which the scheme is located.

4.2 The trustees may designate a fax, email or other address as an alternate body corporate service address.

4.3 A change of a body corporate service address is effective when written notice of that address is lodged with the Community Schemes Ombud Service in the prescribed form.

4.4 The trustees must, when they give the Community Schemes Ombud Service notice of a change of the body corporate service address in terms of section 3(1)(o) of the Act, simultaneously give such written notice to all members and other occupiers of sections and to all registered bondholders.

4.5 The service address for any legal process or delivery of any other document to a member is the address of the primary section registered in that member's name; provided that a member is entitled by written notice to the body corporate to change that address for purposes as contemplated in subsections 6(3)(c) and 6(4) of the Act to another physical address, postal address or fax in the Republic of South Africa or to an email address, and that the change in the service address of the member is effective when the body corporate receives notice of such a change.

4.6 The service address for any legal process or delivery of any other document to an occupier of a section, who is not a member, is the physical address of that section.

PART 2

5 TRUSTEES

5.1 All the members are trustees from the establishment of the body corporate until the end of the first general meeting.

5.2 Subject to rules 6.3 and 28.1, if a body corporate consists of less than 4 members who are owners of primary sections, each member or his or her representative recognised by law is considered to be a trustee without election to office.

- 5.3 If a body corporate consists of more than 4 members who are owners of primary sections, they must from time to time determine the number of trustees to be elected in terms of these rules.
- 5.4 The trustees shall be divided into three classes, namely residential, retail and commercial —
- 5.4.1 two of the trustees shall be residential trustees nominated and appointed by the residential owners;
- 5.4.2 one of the trustees shall be a retail trustee nominated and appointed by the retail owners; and
- 5.4.3 two of the trustees shall be commercial trustees nominated and appointed by the commercial owners.

6 REQUIREMENTS FOR OFFICE AND DISQUALIFICATION

- 6.1 A trustee need not be a member or the legally recognised representative of a member who is a juristic person.
- 6.2 A person who is the managing agent or an employee of the managing agent or the body corporate may not be a trustee unless that person is a member.
- 6.3 A trustee ceases to hold office if that trustee —
- 6.3.1 by written notice to the body corporate, resigns from office;
- 6.3.2 is declared by a court to be of unsound mind;
- 6.3.3 is or becomes insolvent and the insolvency results in the sequestration of that trustee's estate;
- 6.3.4 is convicted, or has been convicted in the Republic or elsewhere, of theft, fraud, forgery, perjury or any other offence involving dishonesty;
- 6.3.5 is sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine;
- 6.3.6 is removed from an office of trust on account of misconduct in respect of fraud or the misappropriation of money;
- 6.3.7 is removed from office by ordinary resolution of a general meeting; provided the intention to vote on the proposed removal was specified in the notice convening the meeting;
- 6.3.8 is or becomes disqualified to hold office as a director of a company in terms of the Companies Act, 2008 (Act No. 71 of 2008); or
- 6.3.9 fails or refuses to pay the body corporate any amount due by that trustee after a court or adjudicator has given a judgment or order for payment of that amount.

7 NOMINATION, ELECTION AND REPLACEMENT

- 7.1 A residential member may nominate any person for the office of residential trustee, a commercial member may nominate any person for the office of commercial trustee and a retail member may nominate any person for the office of retail trustee,
- 7.2 The nomination of a trustee must be in writing, accompanied by the written consent of the person nominated and delivered to the body corporate service address at least 48 hours before the annual general meeting is due to start.

- 7.3 If an insufficient number of nominations are received in terms of sub-rule 7.2, further nominations may be called for at the annual general meeting with the consent of the persons nominated.
- 7.4 Save for the provisions of rules 5.1 and 5.2 trustees must be elected at the first general meeting of the body corporate and then at each subsequent annual general meeting.
- 7.5 In the event that a trustee ceases to hold office —
- 7.5.1 If a residential trustee ceases to hold office the remaining residential trustees or the residential members in general meeting may appoint a replacement residential trustee.
- 7.5.2 If a commercial trustee ceases to hold office the remaining commercial trustees or the commercial members in general meeting may appoint a replacement commercial trustee.
- 7.5.3 If a retail trustee ceases to hold office the retail members in general meeting may appoint a replacement retail trustee.
- 7.6 An elected or replacement trustee holds office until the end of the next annual general meeting and is eligible for re-election, if properly nominated.
- 7.7 The residential trustees may appoint, for a specified period, a person qualified to serve as a residential trustee as a replacement for any residential trustee who is absent or otherwise unable to perform the duties of that office.
- 7.8 The commercial trustees may appoint, for a specified period, a person qualified to serve as a commercial trustee as a replacement for any commercial trustee who is absent or otherwise unable to perform the duties of that office.
- 7.9 The retail trustee may appoint, for a specified period, a person qualified to serve as a retail trustee as a replacement for himself/herself should he/she be absent or otherwise unable to perform the duties of that office.

8 PAYMENT AND INDEMNITY

- 8.1 The body corporate must reimburse trustees for all disbursements and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by them in carrying out their duties and exercising their powers.
- 8.2 Unless so determined by special resolution, trustees who are members are not entitled to any reward, whether monetary or otherwise, for their services as such.
- 8.3 Trustees who are not members may be rewarded for their services as such; provided that any reward, whether monetary or otherwise, must be approved by a resolution of the body corporate as part of the budget for the scheme's administrative fund.
- 8.4 The body corporate must indemnify a trustee who is not a managing agent against all costs, losses and expenses arising as a result of any official act that is not in breach of the trustee's fiduciary obligations to the body corporate.
- 8.5 The indemnity referred to in sub-rule 8.4 shall only apply to those acts of a trustee done by him in the discharge of his duties as a trustee of the body corporate as a whole and in respect of the discharge of duties specifically allocated to a residential trustee, retail trustee or commercial trustee, as the case may be. In respect of such acts he shall be indemnified mutatis mutandis in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule 8.4 by the class of members which appointed him as trustee and payment shall be made to him out of the funds of the body corporate contributed to the body corporate by that class of members. No amount shall be paid for these purposes out of the funds contributed to the body corporate by the other class of members and in the event of any shortfall in the amount necessary to pay that trustee, the residential trustees, retail trustee or commercial trustees, as the case may be, shall levy a contribution from the class of members which appointed them.

PART 3

TRUSTEE MEETINGS AND DECISIONS

9 GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES

9.1 The trustees must —

9.1.1 meet to carry out the body corporate's business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, subject to the provisions of the Act, these rules and the common law of meetings;

9.1.2 exercise the body corporate's powers and functions assigned and delegated to them in terms of section 7(1) of the Act in accordance with resolutions taken at general meetings and at meetings of trustees;

9.1.3 apply the body corporate's funds in accordance with budgets approved by members in general meeting;

9.1.4 appoint any agent or employee in terms of section 4(a) of the Act in terms of a duly signed written contract; and

9.1.5 compile minutes of each trustee and general meeting in accordance with rule 27.2.1 and distribute these to the persons entitled to notice of the meeting concerned as soon as reasonably possible, but not later than 7 days after the date of the meeting;

9.2 the powers and duties of the trustees are hereby allocated and delegated as follows —

9.2.1 The residential trustees shall have all those powers and duties referred to in these rules as are necessary to discharge the functions in terms of this rule 9, except for those items referred to in sub-rule 9(f)(iv) which are reserved to all the trustees acting together.

9.2.2 The commercial trustees shall have all those powers and duties referred to in these rules as are necessary to discharge the functions in terms of this rule 9, except for those items referred to in sub-rule 9(f)(iv) which are reserved to all the trustees acting together.

9.2.3 The retail trustee shall have all those powers and duties referred to in these rules as are necessary to discharge the functions in terms of this rule 9, except for those items referred to in sub-rule 9(f)(iv) which are reserved to all the trustees acting together.

9.2.4 Save to the extent that the residential trustees, retail trustee or the commercial trustees respectively have certain rights and duties in terms of these rules, the powers and duties referred to in these rules shall be reserved to all the trustees acting together.

10 VALIDITY OF ACTIONS

10.1 No document signed on behalf of the body corporate is valid and binding unless it is signed on the authority of a trustee resolution by —

10.1.1 one retail trustee, one residential trustee and one commercial trustee and the managing agent, in the case of a clearance certificate issued by the body corporate in terms of section 15B(3)(i)(aa) of the Sectional Titles Act; and

10.1.2 one retail trustee, one residential trustee and one commercial trustee, in the case of any other document.

- 10.2 A resolution adopted, or other act performed by the trustees remains valid and effective notwithstanding the later discovery of some defect in the appointment of a trustee or the disqualification of a trustee.

11 CALLING AND ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS

- 11.1 A trustee may at any time call a meeting of trustees by giving all other trustees not less than seven days written notice of the time and place of the meeting and by setting out an agenda for the meeting: Provided that —
- 11.1.1 in cases of urgency a trustee may give such shorter notice as is reasonable in the circumstances; and
- 11.1.2 notice need not be given to any trustee who is absent from the Republic unless the meeting is one referred to in sub-rule 11.5, but notice must be given to any replacement trustee appointed for that trustee.
- 11.2 The trustees may by written resolution set the dates of and a standard agenda for their future meetings and delivery of a copy of this resolution is considered adequate notice of all such future meetings.
- 11.3 Members, registered bondholders, holders of future development rights and the managing agent may attend trustee meetings and may speak on any matter on the agenda, but they are not entitled to propose any motion or to vote; provided that such persons are not entitled to attend those parts of trustee meetings that deal with —
- 11.3.1 discussions of contraventions of the Act or rules; or
- 11.3.2 any other matters in respect of which the trustees resolve that the presence of any such persons would unreasonably interfere with the interests of the body corporate or any person's privacy.
- 11.4 If a member, a registered mortgagee or the holder of a future development right in writing requests notice of trustee meetings, the trustees must deliver to that person a copy of a notice of a meeting referred to in sub-rule (1), a resolution referred to in sub-rule (2) and a notice of any adjournment of such a meeting; provided that the body corporate may recover from the person concerned the costs of delivery of such documents.
- 11.5 The trustees may make arrangements for attendance at a trustee meeting by telephone or any other method, if the method —
- 11.5.1 is accessible to all trustees and other persons entitled to attend the meeting;
- 11.5.2 permits all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other during the meeting; and
- 11.5.3 permits the chairperson to confirm, with reasonable certainty, the identity of the participants.
- 11.6 A person who attends a meeting as provided under sub-rule 11.5 is considered present in person at the meeting.
- 11.7 At all meetings of the trustees, the chairperson shall divide the matters to be dealt with into —
- 11.7.1 matters reserved for the attention and decision of the retail trustee;
- 11.7.2 matters reserved for the attention and decision of the residential trustees;

- 11.7.3 matters reserved for the attention and decision of the commercial trustees; and
- 11.7.4 matters of general concern for the attention and decision of all trustees including but not limited to matters relating to the parking areas.

12 CHAIRPERSON

- 12.1 If a body corporate consists of only two members, the provisions in these rules in regard to the election and functions of a chairperson do not apply.
- 12.2 From the establishment of the body corporate until the end of the first general meeting, the developer or the developer's nominee is the chairperson of the trustees.
- 12.3 At the commencement of the first meeting of trustees after an annual general meeting at which trustees have been elected and whenever else necessary, the trustees must by majority vote elect a chairperson from among their number.
- 12.4 The chairperson of the trustees holds office as such until the end of the next annual general meeting.
- 12.5 The trustees at a trustees' meeting or the members at a general meeting may remove the chairperson from office if notice of the meeting contains a clear statement of the proposed removal; provided that such removal does not automatically remove the chairperson from the office of trustee.
- 12.6 If a chairperson is removed from office as such or ceases to hold office as a trustee, the remaining trustees must elect a replacement chairperson from among their number who holds office as chairperson for the remainder of the period of office of his or her predecessor and has the same voting rights.
- 12.7 If the elected chairperson vacates the chair during the course of a trustee meeting, is not present or is for any other reason unable or unwilling to preside, the trustees present must choose another chairperson from among their number and that replacement chairperson has all the powers and functions of the chairperson while acting as such.

13 QUORUM

- 13.1 At a trustee meeting, 50 per cent of the trustees by number, but not less than one retail trustee, one residential trustee and one commercial trustee, form a quorum.
- 13.2 If the number of trustees falls below the number necessary to form a quorum, the remaining trustee or trustees may continue to act, but only to —
 - 13.2.1 appoint replacement trustees to make up a quorum; or
 - 13.2.2 call a general meeting.
- 13.3 If at any trustee meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the appointed time for the meeting, the trustees present, but not less than three, must adopt interim resolutions in respect of each item on the agenda.
- 13.4 An interim resolution adopted by trustees in terms of sub-rule 13.3 does not take effect unless it is confirmed —
 - 13.4.1 at the next trustee meeting at which a quorum is present; or
 - 13.4.2 by written resolution signed by all the trustees.

14 VOTING

- 14.1 A motion at a trustee meeting —
 - 14.1.1 does not have to be seconded; and
 - 14.1.2 must be determined by resolution adopted by the majority of the trustees present and voting.
- 14.2 Each trustee is entitled to one vote.
- 14.3 A trustee is disqualified from voting in respect of any matter in which the trustee has any direct or indirect personal interest.
- 14.4 Trustees must adopt decisions by resolutions adopted by majority vote: Provided that resolutions may be put to the vote —
 - 14.4.1 at trustee meetings; or
 - 14.4.2 by a notice sent to each trustee which contains the text of any proposed resolutions and instructs the trustees to indicate their agreement to the resolution by their signature, which signatures must be received by the body corporate before expiry of the closing date specified in the notice.
- 14.5 The residential trustees, retail trustee and commercial trustees respectively shall only be entitled to vote on matters reserved for their respective decision and attention in terms of rule 11.7. All trustees shall be entitled to vote in respect of matters of general concern as determined in accordance with that rule.
- 14.6 The residential trustees shall have complete control over the management, control, administration, running and upkeep, maintenance and repair of the residential component and the residential specific common areas. The commercial trustees and retail trustee shall have no say or powers of whatsoever nature in respect of any matters referred to in this rule 14.6.
- 14.7 The commercial trustees shall have complete control over the management, control, administration, membership, running and upkeep, maintenance and repair of the commercial component and the commercial specific common areas. The residential trustees and retail trustee shall have no say or powers of whatsoever nature in respect of any matters referred to in this rule 14.7.
- 14.8 The retail trustee shall have complete control over the management, control, administration, membership, running and upkeep, maintenance and repair of the retail component and the retail specific common areas. The residential and commercial trustees shall have no say or powers of whatsoever nature in respect of any matters referred to in this rule 14.8.
- 14.9 The commercial trustees, retail trustee and the residential trustees shall jointly have complete control over the management, control, administration, running and upkeep, maintenance and repair of the parking areas.
- 14.10 In terms of this rule 14, management, control, administration, running and upkeep, maintenance and repair shall be of a general standard determined by the trustees as a whole from time to time.

PART 4

OWNER MEETINGS

15 NOTICE

- 15.1 Subject to sub-rule 15.7, at least 14 days' written notice of a general meeting specifying the place, date and hour of the meeting must be given to —
- 15.1.1 all members;
 - 15.1.2 all registered bondholders;
 - 15.1.3 all holders of future development rights; and
 - 15.1.4 the managing agent.
- 15.2 A person who has a right to be notified under this rule may waive that right by notice in writing delivered to the body corporate and may, at any time and in the same way, revoke that waiver; provided that if two or more persons are jointly entitled to exercise a vote, all of them must waive the right to notice and any of them may revoke that waiver.
- 15.3 The notice of a general meeting must be accompanied by at least —
- 15.3.1 an agenda, as required in terms of these rules;
 - 15.3.2 a copy or comprehensive summary of any document that is to be considered or approved by members at the meeting; and
 - 15.3.3 a proxy appointment form in the prescribed format.
- 15.4 A general meeting must be held in the local municipal area where the scheme is situated unless the members have by special resolution decided otherwise.
- 15.5 Registered bondholders, holders of future development rights and the managing agent may attend general meetings and may speak on any matter on the agenda, but they are not, in those capacities, entitled to propose any motion or to vote; provided that such persons are not entitled to attend any part of a general meeting if the members resolve that their presence would unreasonably interfere with the interests of the body corporate or any person's privacy.
- 15.6 Notice of a general meeting must be delivered to —
- 15.6.1 members at their service addresses in terms of rule 4(5), and
 - 15.6.2 other persons at the most recent physical, postal, fax or email address of which they have notified the body corporate in writing.
- 15.7 A general meeting may be called —
- 15.7.1 on 7 days' notice if the trustees have resolved that short notice is necessary due to the urgency of the matter and set out their reasons for this resolution; provided that the trustees must not take such a resolution in regard to a meeting referred to in rule 29.4 or 29.5;
 - 15.7.2 on less than 14 days' notice, if this is agreed to in writing by all persons entitled to attend.
- 15.8 Failure to give proper notice of a general meeting to a person entitled to receive notice does not invalidate a vote taken at the meeting, as long as the body corporate made a reasonable attempt to give the notice.

15.9 Voting at a general meeting may proceed despite the lack of notice as required by this rule, if all persons entitled to receive notice in writing waive their right to notice.

16 FIRST GENERAL MEETING

16.1 The developer must include with the notice of the first general meeting held in terms of section 2(8) of the Act —

16.1.1 an agenda in accordance with sub-rule 16.2;

16.1.2 the documents referred to in sub-rule 16.2; and

16.1.3 a comprehensive summary of the rights and obligations of the body corporate under the policies and contracts referred to in sub-rule 16.2.4.

16.2 The agenda for the first general meeting of members must include at least the following —

16.2.1 a motion to confirm or vary the terms of the policies of insurance effected by the developer or the body corporate;

16.2.2 a motion to confirm or vary an itemised estimate of the body corporate's anticipated income and expenses for its first financial year;

16.2.3 a motion to approve, with or without amendment, the developer's —

16.2.3.1 evidence of revenue and expenditure concerning the management of the scheme from the date of the first occupation of any unit until the date of the establishment of the body corporate, as required in terms of section 2(8)(c)(iii) of the Act; and

16.2.3.2 financial statements relating to the management and administration of the scheme from the date of establishment of the body corporate to the date of notice of the first general meeting referred to in sub rule 16.1;

16.2.4 subject to section 15(2) of the Act, a motion to ratify or not to ratify the terms of any contract entered into by the developer on behalf of the body corporate;

16.2.5 a motion confirming that the developer has —

16.2.5.1 furnished the meeting with copies of the documents referred to in section 2(8) of the Act and in this rule; and

16.2.5.2 paid over any residue referred to in section 2(9) of the Act;

16.2.6 a motion appointing an auditor to audit the evidence and financial statements referred to in sub-rule 16.2.3;

16.2.7 motions determining the number of trustees and electing trustees;

16.2.8 a motion detailing any restrictions to be imposed or directions to be given in terms of section 7(1) of the Act or confirming that there are no such restrictions or directions.

16.3 For the purposes of voting on the items of business referred to in sub-rule 16.2.3, 16.2.4 and 16.2.5 any vote held or controlled by the developer is suspended.

16.4 In addition to the documents referred to in section 2(8) of the Act, the developer must at or before the first general meeting furnish the body corporate with copies of —

16.4.1 all building plans approved by the local municipality;

- 16.4.2 any encroachment permit or other document issued by the local municipality in regard to the improvements in the scheme;
- 16.4.3 plans showing the location of all pipes, wires, cables and ducts referred to in section (3)(1)(r) of the Act;
- 16.4.4 names and addresses of all contractors, subcontractors and any other persons whom the developer has employed to render services or supply materials relating to the development of the scheme;
- 16.4.5 all warranties, manuals, schematic drawings, operating instructions, service guides, documentation from manufacturers and other similar information in respect of the construction, installation, operation, maintenance, repair and servicing of any common property or body corporate assets, occupation certificate, including any guarantee or warranty provided to the developer by a person referred to in sub-rule 16.4.4; and
- 16.4.6 all records the body corporate is required to prepare or retain in terms of rule 27.
- 16.5 If the developer fails to provide the body corporate with any document referred to in section 2(8) of the Act or in this rule, the body corporate must do all things reasonably necessary to obtain or have the specific document prepared and may recover the reasonable costs incurred in doing so from the developer.
- 16.6 If the developer fails to call the first general meeting in compliance with the requirements of section 2(8) of the Act, any member or the body corporate may do so and the body corporate must recover from the developer all costs reasonably incurred in ensuring compliance with the developer's obligations.

17 ANNUAL AND SPECIAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- 17.1 Subject to sub-rule 17.2, the body corporate must hold an annual general meeting within four months of the end of each financial year.
- 17.2 The body corporate is not obliged to hold an annual general meeting if, before or within one month of the end of a financial year, all members in writing waive the right to the meeting and consent in writing to motions that deal with all the items of business that must be transacted at the annual general meeting; provided that if two or more persons are jointly entitled to exercise a vote, all of them must waive the right to the meeting and consent to the resolutions in writing.
- 17.3 All general meetings other than the annual general meeting are special general meetings.
- 17.4 The trustees may by resolution call a general meeting whenever they think fit and must do so if either —
 - 17.4.1 members entitled to 25 per cent of the total quotas of all sections; or
 - 17.4.2 the holder of mortgage bonds over not less than 25 per cent in number of all the primary sections,and must deliver to the body corporate a written and signed request for a special general meeting; provided that if the trustees fail to call a meeting thus requested within 14 days of delivery of the request, the members or bondholder concerned are entitled to call the meeting.
- 17.5 Members or a bondholder who request a meeting in terms of sub-rule (4) must include one or more motions or matters for discussion with their request and these motions or matters must be included, without amendment, in the agenda for the meeting.

- 17.6 The order of business at general meetings is as follows —
- 17.6.1 confirm proxies, nominees and other persons representing members and issue voting cards;
 - 17.6.2 determine that there is a quorum;
 - 17.6.3 elect a person to chair the meeting, if necessary;
 - 17.6.4 present to the meeting proof of notice of the meeting or waivers of notice;
 - 17.6.5 approve the agenda;
 - 17.6.6 approve minutes from the previous general meeting, if any;
 - 17.6.7 deal with unfinished business, if any;
 - 17.6.8 deal with any business referred to in sub-rule 17.5;
 - 17.6.9 if the meeting is the first general meeting referred to in section 2(8) of the Act, deal with the business set out in rule 16.2;
 - 17.6.10 if the meeting is an annual general meeting —
 - 17.6.10.1 receive reports of the activities and decisions of trustees since the previous general meeting, including reports of committees;
 - 17.6.10.2 approve the schedules of insurance replacement values referred to in rule 23.3, with or without amendment;
 - 17.6.10.3 determine the extent of the insurance cover by the body corporate in terms of rules 23.6, 23.7 and 23.8;
 - 17.6.10.4 approve the budgets for the administrative and reserve funds for the next financial year;
 - 17.6.10.5 consider the annual financial statements;
 - 17.6.10.6 appoint an auditor to audit the annual financial statements, unless all the sections in the scheme are registered in the name of one person;
 - 17.6.10.7 if the body corporate has more than four members who are owners of primary sections and is not managed by an executive managing agent in terms of rule 28, determine the number of trustees to be elected to serve during the next financial year; and
 - 17.6.10.8 elect the trustees;
 - 17.6.11 report on the lodgment of any amendments to the scheme's rules adopted by the body corporate under section 10 of the Act and, if applicable, table a consolidated set of scheme rules;
 - 17.6.12 deal with any new or further business;
 - 17.6.13 give directions or impose restrictions referred to in section 7(1) of the Act; and
 - 17.6.14 dissolve the meeting.
- 17.7 Subject to sub-rules 17.5 and 17.6, the trustees determine the agenda for an annual or special general meeting; provided that the agenda must contain -

- 17.7.1 a description of the general nature of all business, and
- 17.7.2 a description of the matters that will be voted on at the meeting, including the proposed wording of any special or unanimous resolution.
- 17.8 If any of the items of business that require member approval are not approved at an annual general meeting or any adjournment of the meeting; the resolution not to approve the relevant document must include the reasons for non-approval and the body corporate must have the document revised and submitted to another general meeting for approval as soon as reasonably possible, until it is approved.
- 17.9 The body corporate does not have to hold a special general meeting to consider a resolution if all members waive the right to the meeting and consent to the resolution in writing; provided that if two or more persons are jointly entitled to exercise a vote, all of them must waive the right to the meeting and consent to the resolution in writing.
- 17.10 A body corporate may make arrangements for attendance at an annual or special general meeting by telephone or any other method, if the method —
 - 17.10.1 is accessible to all members and other persons entitled to attend the meeting;
 - 17.10.2 permits all persons participating in the meeting to communicate with each other during the meeting; and
 - 17.10.3 permits the chairperson to confirm, with reasonable certainty, the identity of the participants.
- 17.11 A person who attends a meeting as provided under sub-rule 17.10 is considered present in person at the meeting.

18 CHAIRPERSON

- 18.1 The chairperson of the trustees must preside as chairperson at every general meeting of the body corporate, unless otherwise resolved by members at the meeting.
- 18.2 If there is no chairperson or the chairperson of the trustees is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, or is unwilling or unable to act as chairperson, the members present must elect a chairperson for such meeting.
- 18.3 A chairperson must —
 - 18.3.1 maintain order, regulate the orderly expression of views and guide the members and other participants through the business of the meeting in accordance with the common law of meetings;
 - 18.3.2 ensure that all motions and amendments proposed are within the scope of the notice and powers of the meeting;
 - 18.3.3 ensure that the scheme's rules, the minute books and any other documents relevant to the items of business on the agenda are available at the meeting;
 - 18.3.4 act fairly, impartially and courteously to all members and others entitled to attend the meeting;
 - 18.3.5 ensure that all members and other persons entitled to speak are able to express their views without unnecessary disturbance or interruption;
 - 18.3.6 adjourn the meeting, when it is not able to complete or continue with its business;
 - 18.3.7 make decisions on points of procedure;

- 18.3.8 settle disputes by giving rulings on points of order; and
- 18.3.9 surrender the chair to a temporary chairperson elected by the members for any period during which the chairperson wishes to engage in the debate of any item of business.
- 18.4 A chairperson at a general meeting must not —
 - 18.4.1 from the chair, attempt to influence members' views on any item of business; or
 - 18.4.2 disclose in advance of a vote how the chairperson intends to vote on any item of business.

19 QUORUM

- 19.1 Business must not be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present or represented.
- 19.2 A quorum for a general meeting is constituted —
 - 19.2.1 for a scheme with less than 4 primary sections or a body corporate with less than four members, by members entitled to vote and holding two thirds of the total votes of members in value;
 - 19.2.2 for any other scheme, by members entitled to vote and holding one third of the total votes of members in value,
 - 19.2.3 provided that at least one residential trustee, one retail trustee and one commercial trustee must be present unless all the sections in the scheme are registered in the name of one person and provided further that in calculating the value of votes required to constitute a quorum, the value of votes of the developer must not be taken into account.
- 19.3 For the purpose of establishing a quorum and for the purposes of section 6 of the Act, the value of votes of any sections registered in the name of the body corporate must not be taken into account and the body corporate must not be considered to be a member.
- 19.4 If within 30 minutes from the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting stands adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same place and time; provided that if on the day to which the meeting is adjourned a quorum as described in sub-rule 19.2 is not present within 30 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting, the members entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy constitute a quorum.

20 VOTING AND REPRESENTATIVES

- 20.1 A motion at a general meeting —
 - 20.1.1 does not need to be seconded; and
 - 20.1.2 except for a special or unanimous resolution, must be adopted by resolution of the majority of the votes, calculated in value, of the members present and voting.
- 20.2 Except for special and unanimous resolutions, a member is not entitled to vote if —
 - 20.2.1 a member fails or refuses to pay the body corporate any amount due by that member after a court or adjudicator has given a judgment or order for payment of that amount; or
 - 20.2.2 that member persists in the breach of any of the conduct rules of the scheme referred to in section 10(2)(b) of the Act after a court or an adjudicator has ordered that member to refrain from breaching such rule.

- 20.3 For the purposes of any vote, the values of votes of any sections registered in the name of the body corporate are considered abstentions.
- 20.4 Where a member is as such a trustee for a beneficiary, that member exercises voting rights to the exclusion of persons beneficially interested in the trust and such persons are not entitled to vote.
- 20.5 A member's appointment of a proxy in terms of section 6(5) of the Act and the proxy's acceptance of the mandate must, except in the case of an appointment in a mortgage bond, be substantially in the prescribed form and must be —
- 20.5.1 delivered to the body corporate 48 hours before the time of the meeting; or
- 20.5.2 handed to the chairperson before or at the start of the meeting.
- 20.6 A proxy need not be a member but must not be the managing agent or an employee of the managing agent or the body corporate.
- 20.7 When two or more persons are entitled to exercise one vote jointly, that vote may be exercised only by one person, who may or may not be one of them, jointly appointed by them as their proxy.
- 20.8 The outcome of each vote, including the number of votes for and against the resolution, must be announced by the chairperson and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 20.9 If a special resolution is passed at a general meeting by members holding less than 50 per cent of the total value of all members' votes —
- 20.9.1 the body corporate must not take any action to implement that resolution for one week after the meeting, unless the trustees resolve that there are reasonable grounds to believe that immediate action is necessary to ensure safety or prevent significant loss or damage to the scheme; and
- 20.9.2 within seven days from a resolution referred to in sub-rule 9.1, members holding at least 25 per cent of the total votes of all members in value may, by written and signed request delivered to the body corporate, require that the body corporate hold a special general meeting to reconsider the resolution.
- 20.10 If a demand referred to in sub-rule 20.9.2 is delivered to the body corporate, the trustees must not implement the resolution unless —
- 20.10.1 it is again passed by special resolution; or
- 20.10.2 a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time set for the meeting.

PART 5

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

21 FINANCIAL YEAR, FUNCTIONS AND POWERS

- 21.1 The financial year of a body corporate established after the Act comes into operation must run from the first day of October of each year to the last day of September of the following year unless otherwise resolved by the body corporate in general meeting.
- 21.2 The body corporate must not —
- 21.2.1 make loans from body corporate funds without the authority of a unanimous resolution;
- 21.2.2 refund to any member a contribution lawfully levied and paid;

- 21.2.3 distribute to a member or any other person any portion of the body corporate's profits or gains except —
 - 21.2.3.1 upon destruction or deemed destruction of the buildings, or
 - 21.2.3.2 where such profit or gain is of a capital nature.
- 21.3 The body corporate may, on the authority of a written trustee resolution —
 - 21.3.1 levy members with a special contribution if additional income is required to meet a necessary expense that cannot reasonably be delayed until provided for in the budget for the next financial year;
 - 21.3.2 increase the contributions due by the members by a maximum of 10 per cent at the end of a financial year to take account of the anticipated increased liabilities of the body corporate, which increase will remain effective until members receive notice of the contributions due by them for the next financial year; provided that the trustees must give members notice of such increased contributions by notice in terms of rule 25, with such changes as are required by the context;
 - 21.3.3 charge interest on any overdue amount payable by a member to the body corporate; provided that the interest rate must not exceed the maximum rate of interest payable per annum under the National Credit Act (2005) (Act No 34 of 2005), compounded monthly in arrear;
 - 21.3.4 invest any moneys in the reserve fund referred to in sections 3(1)(b) of the Act in a secure investment with any institution referred to in the definition of "financial institution" in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990);
 - 21.3.5 enter into written and signed contracts in respect of its powers and duties under the Act and these rules;
 - 21.3.6 join organisations and subscribe to services to further its purposes under the Act and these rules;
 - 21.3.7 delegate to one or more of the trustees, to a member, agent or an employee such of their powers and duties as they deem fit, and at any time to revoke such delegation; provided that when they delegate any power or duty they must specify in writing —
 - 21.3.7.1 the power or duty concerned;
 - 21.3.7.2 a maximum amount of the body corporate's funds that may be spent for a particular purpose; and
 - 21.3.7.3 any conditions that may be applicable; and
 - 21.3.8 approach the Community Scheme Ombud Service for relief.
- 21.4 The body corporate must ensure that all money received by the body corporate is deposited to the credit of an interest-bearing bank account —
 - 21.4.1 in the name of the body corporate; or
 - 21.4.2 that is a trust account opened in terms of either the Estate Agency Affairs Act, 1976 (Act No. 112 of 1976), or the Attorneys Act, 1979 (Act No. 53 of 1979).

22 MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND REPLACEMENT PLAN

- 22.1 A body corporate or trustees must prepare a written maintenance, repair and replacement plan for the common property, setting out —

- 22.1.1 the major capital items expected to require maintenance, repair and replacement within the next 10 years;
 - 22.1.2 the present condition or state of repair of those items;
 - 22.1.3 the time when those items or components of those items will need to be maintained, repaired or replaced;
 - 22.1.4 the estimated cost of the maintenance, repair and replacement of those items or components;
 - 22.1.5 the expected life of those items or components once maintained, repaired or replaced; and
 - 22.1.6 any other information the body corporate considers relevant.
- 22.2 The annual contribution to the reserve fund for the maintenance, repair or replacement of each of the major capital items must be determined according to the following formula: [(estimated cost minus past contribution) divided by expected life].
- 22.3 A maintenance, repair and replacement plan takes effect on its approval by the members in general meeting; provided that on approval of such a plan, members may lay down conditions for the payment of money from the reserve fund.
- 22.4 The trustees must report the extent to which the approved maintenance, repair and replacement plan has been implemented to each annual general meeting.

23 INSURANCE

- 23.1 The insurance policies of the body corporate in terms of sections 3(1)(h) and (i) of the Act —
- 23.1.1 Must provide cover against —
 - 23.1.1.1 risks referred to in regulation 3;
 - 23.1.1.2 risks that members resolve must be covered by insurance; and
 - 23.1.1.3 risks that holders of registered first mortgage bonds over not less than 25 per cent in number of the primary sections by written notice to the body corporate may require to be covered by insurance;
 - 23.1.1.4 the member's interest in the land included in the scheme; provided that any member may at any time by written notice to the body corporate require that the replacement value specified for that member's unit or exclusive use area be increased;
 - 23.1.2 Must restrict the application of any "average" clause to individual units and exclusive use areas, so that no such clause applies to the buildings as a whole;
 - 23.1.3 Must include a clause in terms of which the policy is valid and enforceable by any holder of a registered mortgage bond over a section or exclusive use area against the insurer notwithstanding any circumstances whatsoever which would otherwise entitle the insurer to refuse to make payment of the amount insured, unless and until the insurer terminates the insurance on at least 30 days' notice to the bondholder; and
 - 23.1.4 May include provision for "excess" amounts.
- 23.2 A member is responsible —

- 23.2.1 for payment of any additional premium payable on account of an increase in the replacement value referred to in sub-rule 23.1.1.2;
- 23.2.2 for any excess amount that relates to damage to any part of the buildings that member is obliged to repair and maintain in terms of the Act or these rules,
- 23.2.3 and must furnish the body corporate with written proof from the insurer of payment of that amount within seven days of written request.
- 23.3 A body corporate must obtain a replacement valuation of all buildings and improvements that it must insure at least every three years and present such replacement valuation to the annual general meeting.
- 23.4 A body corporate must prepare for each annual general meeting schedules showing estimates of —
- 23.4.1 the replacement value of the buildings and all improvements to the common property; and
- 23.4.2 the replacement value of each unit, excluding the member's interest in the land included in the scheme, the total of such values of all units being equal to the value referred to in sub-rule 23.4.1.
- 23.5 On written request by any registered bondholder and the furnishing of satisfactory proof, the body corporate must record the cession to that bondholder of that member's interest in any of the proceeds of the insurance policies of the body corporate.
- 23.6 A body corporate must take out public liability insurance to cover the risk of any liability it may incur to pay compensation in respect of -
- 23.6.1 any bodily injury to or death or illness of a person on or in connection with the common property; and
- 23.6.2 any damage to or loss of property that is sustained as a result of an occurrence or happening in connection with the common property,
- 23.6.3 for an amount determined by members in general meeting, but not less than 10 million rand or any such higher amount as may be prescribed by the Minister in any one claim and in total for any one period of insurance.
- 23.7 A body corporate must take out insurance for an amount determined by members in general meeting to cover the risk of loss of funds belonging to the body corporate or for which it is responsible, sustained as a result of any act of fraud or dishonesty committed by a trustee, managing agent, employee or other agent of the body corporate.
- 23.8 A body corporate, authorised by a special resolution of members, may insure any additional insurable interest the body corporate has —
- 23.8.1 in the land and buildings included in the scheme; and
- 23.8.2 relating to the performance of its functions, for an amount determined in that resolution.

24 ADMINISTRATIVE AND RESERVE FUNDS

- 24.1 The administrative fund referred to in section 3(1)(a) of the Act must be used to fund the operating expenses of the body corporate for a particular financial year. The trustees shall at all times account separately for funds relating to the commercial, retail and residential sections respectively and any amounts standing to the credit of one section may not be set off against any debit relating to another section.

- 24.2 The reserve fund maintained in terms of section 3(1)(b) of the Act must be used for the implementation of the maintenance, repair and replacement plan of the body corporate referred to in rule 22.
- 24.3 The following amounts must be paid into the reserve fund —
- 24.3.1 any part of the annual levies designated as being for the purpose of reserves or the maintenance, repair and replacement plan;
- 24.3.2 any amounts received under an insurance policy in respect of damage or destruction of property for which the body corporate is responsible;
- 24.3.3 any interest earned on the investment of the money in the reserve fund;
- 24.3.4 any other amounts determined by the body corporate,
- 24.3.5 and all other body corporate income must be paid into the administrative fund.
- 24.4 Money may be paid out of the administrative fund in accordance with trustee resolutions and the approved budget for the administrative fund.
- 24.5 Money may be paid out of the reserve fund —
- 24.5.1 at any time in accordance with trustee resolutions and the approved maintenance, repair and replacement plan; or
- 24.5.2 if the trustees resolve that such a payment is necessary for the purpose of an urgent maintenance, repair or replacement expense, which purpose includes, without limitation —
- 24.5.2.1 to comply with an order of a court or an adjudicator;
- 24.5.2.2 to repair, maintain or replace any property for which the body corporate is responsible where there are reasonable grounds to believe that an immediate expenditure is necessary to ensure safety or prevent significant loss or damage to persons or property;
- 24.5.2.3 to repair any property for which the body corporate is responsible where the need for the repairs could not have been reasonably foreseen in preparing the maintenance, repair and replacement plan; or
- 24.5.2.4 to enable the body corporate to obtain adequate insurance for property that the body corporate is required to insure;
- provided that the trustees must report to the members on any such expenditure as soon as possible after it is made.
- 24.6 Expenditure under sub-rule 24.5.2 —
- 24.6.1 must not exceed —
- 24.6.1.1 the amount necessary for the purpose for which it is expended; or
- 24.6.1.2 any limitation imposed by the body corporate on expenditure; and
- 24.6.2 must comply with any restrictions imposed or directions given by members.

25 CONTRIBUTIONS AND CHARGES

- 25.1 The body corporate must, as soon as possible but not later than 14 days after the approval of the budgets referred to in rule 17.6.10.4 by a general meeting, give each member written notice of the contributions and charges due and payable by that member to the body corporate, which notice must —
- 25.1.1 state that the member has an obligation to pay the specified contributions and charges; and
- 25.1.2 specify to which section (retail, residential or commercial) that contribution relates
- 25.1.3 specify the due date for each payment; and
- 25.1.4 if applicable, state that interest at a rate specified in the notice will be payable on any overdue contributions and charges; and
- 25.1.5 include details of the dispute resolution process that applies in respect of disputed contributions and charges.
- 25.2 If money owing is not paid on the dates specified in the notice referred to in sub-rule 25.1, the body corporate must send a final notice to the member, which notice must state —
- 25.2.1 that the member has an obligation to pay the overdue contributions and charges and any applicable interest immediately; and
- 25.2.2 if applicable —
- 25.2.2.1 the interest that is payable in respect of the overdue contributions and charges at the date of the final notice; and
- 25.2.2.2 the amount of interest that will accrue daily until the payment of the overdue contributions and charges; and
- 25.2.3 that the body corporate intends to take action to recover the amount due if the overdue contributions and charges and interest owing are not paid within 14 days after the date the final notice is given.
- 25.3 Subject to rules 21.3.1 and 21.3.2, after the expiry of a financial year and until they become liable for contributions in respect of the next financial year, members are liable for contributions in the same amounts and payable in the same instalments as were due and payable by them during the past financial year.
- 25.4 A member is liable for and must pay to the body corporate all reasonable legal costs and disbursements, as taxed or agreed by the member, incurred by the body corporate in the collection of arrear contributions or any other arrear amounts due and owing by such member to the body corporate, or in enforcing compliance with these rules, the conduct rules or the Act.
- 25.5 The body corporate must not debit a member's account with any amount that is not a contribution, or a charge levied in terms of the Act or these rules without the member's consent or the authority of a judgment or order by a judge, adjudicator or arbitrator.
- 25.6 The body corporate must in its annual financial statements account for all contributions and any other charges debited to members' accounts.
- 25.7 On request in writing by a member the body corporate must make available a full and detailed account of all amounts debited and credited to the member's account with the body corporate.

- 25.8 The liability of members to make contributions, and the proportions in which the members will make contributions, shall, with effect from the date upon which the body corporate comes into being, be borne by the members in accordance with the participation quotas attaching to their respective sections, save that —
- 25.8.1 residential owners will be liable for 100% of the residential expenses in accordance with their contribution quota as well as a fair proportion based on their participation quota for shared expenses;
- 25.8.2 commercial owners will be liable for 100% of the commercial expenses in accordance with their contribution quota as well as a fair proportion based on their participation quota for shared expenses;
- 25.8.3 retail owners will be liable for 100% of the retail expenses in accordance with their contribution quota as well as a fair proportion based on their participation quota for shared expenses;
- 25.8.4 parking bay owners will be liable for 100% of the parking expenses in accordance with their contribution quota.
- 25.9 The liability referred to in rule sub-rule 25.8 shall be determined on a like basis for all sections in the scheme, that is, save as provided for in sub-rule 25.11, the participation quota of the section shall be a percentage expressed to four decimal places, and arrived at by dividing the floor area (correct to the nearest square metre) of the section by the floor area (correct to the nearest square metre) of all sections in the buildings comprising the scheme.
- 25.10 Separate budgets shall be prepared for the residential section, commercial section, retail section and parking area, with all expenses that relate only to a specific section contained therein.
- 25.11 Specific expenses shall apply to one or more specific component/s or section/s in the scheme and without limiting the generality of anything in the foregoing, and for the sake of clarity, where an expense in question relates —
- 25.11.1 to a service or item which does not apply to any section or component in the scheme, the levy applicable to that section or component will exclude such expense;
- 25.11.2 only to a particular unit or component in the scheme (for example if different rates of insurance apply to the residential and/or retail and/or commercial components of the building/s), such surcharge or differential or special rate or applicable charge shall apply only to such section or to the sections comprising such component in the scheme.
- 25.12 The owner of a section shall be liable for the cost of residential hot water cylinders, water and any heating, ventilation, and air conditioning (HVAC) system.
- 25.13 Subject to the provisions of sub-rule 25.11, the following expenses shall be excluded when calculating the levies for the units comprising the retail and commercial component of the scheme, namely all costs of and relating to cleaning, maintenance, repair and replacement of or relating to the areas of common property which are situated inside the residential component of the buildings and vice versa
- 25.14 The trustees as a whole shall be entitled to determine —
- 25.14.1 which expense or cost comprises a levy;
- 25.14.2 which cost or expense is to be excluded from any particular component or section in the scheme; and

- 25.14.3 which cost or expense is to be shared by more than one component.
- 25.15 In the event of a dispute between the members of the body corporate or between any such member and the body corporate as to whether or not any cost or expense is to be excluded from any particular component or section, or whether any cost or expense is to be shared by more than one component, then any such matter, unless legislation dictates otherwise, shall be referred to the auditor of the body corporate for determination. The said auditor for the time being shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator and shall determine the dispute by issuing a certificate in writing, which certificate shall be final and binding on the parties. The costs of the said auditor shall be an expense of the body corporate.
- 25.16 Where costs or expenses are shared between more than one component in the scheme, then, save for costs and expenses of and relating to the parking area, the share of each component shall be reckoned as a percentage that the participation quotas (determined in accordance with sub-rule 25.8) of all sections in that component (excluding parking areas) bears to the aggregate of the participation quotas of all the sections (excluding parking areas) of all the components sharing the cost/s or expense/s in question.
- 25.17 The trustees shall from time to time and whenever necessary, use their best endeavours to arrange with the local authority that it shall account separately to the body corporate for all sanitary and other services, electricity and water, and any other charges which may be payable to it in respect of the commercial, residential, retail and the respective related parking areas.
- 25.18 Each respective section shall endeavour not to hold the other section(s) liable for charges in respect of another section.
- 25.19 Insofar as charges are not apportioned to specific sections by the local authority itself, such charges shall where possible be apportioned to such sections in accordance with the actual amount attributable to the section. In the event of the trustees being unable to agree as to the apportionment of such charges, the matter shall be referred to the auditor of the body corporate.

26 FINANCIAL RECORDS, BUDGETS, REPORTS AND AUDIT

- 27.2.2.4 telephone numbers; and
- 27.2.2.5 email or other electronic addresses, if any;
- 27.2.3 lists of —
 - 27.2.3.1 sections shown on the sectional plan, indicating in each case whether it is a primary or a utility section, its participation quota and the name of the member in whose name it is registered;
 - 27.2.3.2 exclusive use areas with descriptions of purposes and numbers, if any, indicating whether the rights to each area are conferred in terms of section 27 of the Sectional Titles Act or in terms of a rule, and a reference to the relevant rule where applicable; and
 - 27.2.3.3 registered bondholders with their names and addresses;
- 27.2.4 details of all future development rights including —
 - 27.2.4.1 names and addresses of all registered holders of such rights; and
 - 27.2.4.2 copies of all documentation prepared in terms of section 25(2) of the Sectional Titles Act for any such right; and
- 27.2.5 any other records required by the regulations.
- 27.3 The body corporate may obtain and keep copies of all of the following —
 - 27.3.1 the registered sectional plan and any registered amending sectional plan;
 - 27.3.2 the Act and the regulations;
 - 27.3.3 resolutions that deal with changes to the common property, including the conferring of exclusive use rights on members;
 - 27.3.4 consents and approvals given by the body corporate to members;
 - 27.3.5 waivers and consents given by members;
 - 27.3.6 written contracts to which the body corporate is a party;
 - 27.3.7 any decision of an adjudicator, arbitrator, magistrate or judge in a proceeding in which the body corporate is a party, and any legal opinions obtained by the body corporate;
 - 27.3.8 the budget and financial statement for the current year and previous years;
 - 27.3.9 income tax returns;
 - 27.3.10 insurance policies, endorsement and claim forms;
 - 27.3.11 correspondence sent or received by the body corporate and trustees; and
 - 27.3.12 any other records required by the regulations.
- 27.4 On receiving a written request, the body corporate must make the records and documents referred to in this rule available for inspection by, and provide copies of them to —

- 27.4.1 a member;
- 27.4.2 a registered bondholder; or
- 27.4.3 a person authorised in writing by a member or registered bondholder.
- 27.5 The body corporate must comply with a request for inspection or copying under this rule within 10 days unless the request is in respect of the rules, in which case the body corporate must comply with the request within five days.
- 27.6 The body corporate may charge a fee for a copy of a record or document other than the rules, provided that the fee is not more than the reasonable cost associated with the process of making the copy, and the body corporate may refuse to supply the copy until the fee is paid.
- 27.7 If the body corporate terminates its contract with an employee or a managing agent, that person must within 10 days deliver to the body corporate all records referred to in this rule that are in the person's possession or under the person's control.
- 27.8 The records referred to in this rule must be in writing or in a form that can be easily converted to writing.

28 EXECUTIVE MANAGING AGENT AND MANAGING AGENTS

- 28.1 The body corporate may, by special resolution, appoint an executive managing agent to perform the functions and exercise the powers that would otherwise be performed and exercised by the trustees.
- 28.2 Members entitled to 25 per cent of the total quotas of all sections may apply to the Community Scheme Ombud Service for the appointment of an executive managing agent.
- 28.3 An executive managing agent —
 - 28.3.1 is subject to all the duties and obligations of a trustee under the Act and the rules of the scheme;
 - 28.3.2 is obliged to manage the scheme with the required professional level of skill and care;
 - 28.3.3 is liable for any loss suffered by the body corporate as a result of not applying such skill and care;
 - 28.3.4 has a fiduciary obligation to every member of the body corporate;
 - 28.3.5 must arrange for the inspection of the common property at least every six months; and
 - 28.3.6 must report at least every four months to every member of the body corporate on the administration of the scheme.
- 28.4 The reports of an executive managing agent referred to in sub-rule 28.3.6 must include at least the following details —
 - 28.4.1 proposed repairs to and maintenance of the common property and assets of the body corporate within the next four months;
 - 28.4.2 matters the executive managing agent considers relevant to the condition of the common property and the assets of the body corporate;
 - 28.4.3 the balance of each of the administrative and reserve funds of the body corporate on the date of the report and a reconciliation statement for each fund; and

- 28.4.4 for the period since the appointment of the executive managing agent or from the date of the last report —
- 28.4.4.1 the expenses of the body corporate, including repair, maintenance and replacement costs; and
- 28.4.4.2 a brief description of the date and nature of all decisions made by the executive managing agent.
- 28.5 The body corporate may, if trustees so resolve, and must if required by —
- 28.5.1 a registered mortgagee of 25 per cent in number of the primary sections; or
- 28.5.2 a resolution of members,
- appoint a managing agent to perform specified financial, secretarial, administrative or other management services under the supervision of the trustees.
- 28.6 A management agreement for any managing agent must comply with the requirements as may be set out in the regulations.
- 28.7 A management agreement may not endure for a period longer than three years and may be cancelled, without liability or penalty, despite any provision of the management agreement or other agreement to the contrary —
- 28.7.1 by the body corporate on two months' notice, if the cancellation is first approved by a special resolution passed at a general meeting; or
- 28.7.2 by the managing agent on two months' notice.
- 28.8 The body corporate or trustees may by ordinary resolution cancel the management agreement in accordance with its terms or refuse to renew the management agreement when it expires.

PART 7

PHYSICAL MANAGEMENT

29 IMPROVEMENTS TO COMMON PROPERTY

- 29.1 The body corporate may on the authority of a unanimous resolution make alterations or improvements to the common property that is not reasonably necessary.
- 29.2 The body corporate may propose to make alterations or improvements to the common property that are reasonably necessary; provided that no such proposal may be implemented until all members are given at least 30 days written notice with details of —
- 29.2.1 the estimated costs associated with the proposed alterations or improvements;
- 29.2.2 details of how the body corporate intends to meet the costs, including details of any special contributions or loans by the body corporate that will be required for this purpose; and
- 29.2.3 a motivation for the proposal including drawings of the proposed alterations or improvements showing their effect and a motivation of the need for them;
- 29.2.4 and if during this notice period any member in writing to the body corporate requests a general meeting to discuss the proposal, the proposal must not be implemented unless it is approved, with or without amendment, by a special resolution adopted at a general meeting.

- 29.3 A body corporate must, if so directed by a resolution of members —
- 29.3.1 install and maintain separate meters to measure the supply of electricity, water, gas or the supply of any other service to each member's sections and exclusive use areas and to the common property; and
- 29.3.2 recover from members the cost of such supplies to sections and exclusive use areas based on the metered supply.
- 29.4 A body corporate may on the authority of a special resolution install separate pre-payment meters on the common property to control the supply of water or electricity to a section or exclusive use area; provided that all members and occupiers of sections must be given at least 60 days' notice of the proposed resolution with details of all costs associated with the installation of the pre-payment system and its estimated effect on the cost of the services over the next three years.
- 29.5 If a pre-payment system referred to in sub-rule 29.4 is installed —
- 29.5.1 the body corporate is responsible to ensure that the system does not infringe on the constitutional rights of section occupiers to access basic services; and
- 29.5.2 any member who leases a unit to a tenant is responsible to ensure that the system does not infringe the rights of the tenant in terms of the Rental Housing Act, 1999 (Act No. 50 of 1999), or any other law.

30 USE OF SECTIONS AND COMMON PROPERTY

- 30.1 The body corporate must take all reasonable steps to ensure that a member or any other occupier of a section or exclusive use area does not —
- 30.1.1 use the common property so as to unreasonably interfere with other persons lawfully on the premises, in breach of section 13(1)(d) of the Act;
- 30.1.2 use a section or exclusive use area so as to cause a nuisance, in breach of section 13(1)(e) of the Act;
- 30.1.3 contravene the provisions of any —
- 30.1.3.1 law or by-law relating to the use of a section or an exclusive use area; or
- 30.1.3.2 conditions of a license relating to use of the building or the common property, or the carrying on of a business in the building; or
- 30.1.3.3 conditions of title applicable to sections or exclusive use areas;
- 30.1.4 make alterations to a section or an exclusive use area that are likely to impair the stability of the building or interfere with the use and enjoyment of other sections, the common property or any exclusive use area;
- 30.1.5 do anything to a section or exclusive use area that has a material negative affect on the value or utility of any other section or exclusive use area;
- 30.1.6 subject to the provisions of section 13(1)(g) of the Act, use a section or exclusive use area for a purpose other than for its intended use as —
- 30.1.6.1 shown expressly or by implication on a registered sectional plan or an approved building plan;
- 30.1.6.2 reasonably be inferred from the provisions of the applicable town planning by-laws or the rules of the body corporate; or

- 30.1.6.3 is obvious from its construction, layout and available amenities;
- 30.1.7 construct or place any structure or building improvement on an exclusive use area which in practice constitutes a section or an extension of the boundaries or floor area of a section without complying with the requirements of the Act and the Sectional Titles Act; provided that the body corporate may by ordinary resolution —
 - 30.1.7.1 give consent for such a structure or building improvement, if they are satisfied that it does not require compliance with such requirements;
 - 30.1.7.2 prescribe any reasonable condition in regard to the use or appearance of the structure or building improvement; and
 - 30.1.7.3 withdraw any consent if the member or other occupier of a section breaches any such condition.

31 OBLIGATION TO MAINTAIN

- 31.1 Notwithstanding that a water-heating installation forms part of the common property and is insured by the body corporate, a member must maintain, repair and, when necessary, replace such an installation which serves that member's section or exclusive use area; provided that where such an installation serves sections owned or exclusive use areas held by more than one member, the members concerned must share the maintenance, repair and replacement costs on a pro-rata basis.
- 31.2 If despite written demand by the body corporate, a member refuses or fails to —
 - 31.2.1 carry out work in respect of that member's section ordered by a competent authority as required by section 13(1)(b) of the Act; or
 - 31.2.2 repair or maintain a section owned by that member in a state of good repair as required by section 13(1)(c) of the Act;

and that failure threatens the stability of the common property, the safety of the building or otherwise materially prejudices the interests of the body corporate, its members or the occupiers of sections generally, the body corporate must remedy the member's failure and recover the reasonable cost of doing so from that member; provided that in the case of an emergency, no demand or notice need be given to the member concerned.

32 MANAGING ENTITY SUSTAINABILITY RESPONSIBILITIES

- 32.1 The management entity for the Old Cape Quarter development will have the following responsibilities relating to environmental sustainability —
 - 32.1.1 Scheduled inspection and maintenance of all common property services commencing 12 months after practical completion and then once every 2 years thereafter.
 - 32.1.2 An 'Inspection & Maintenance Report' after each major maintenance event.
 - 32.1.3 An 'Environmental Performance Report' will be provided to all dwelling owners and occupants every 6 months. This will indicate the building's common property energy and water performance over the period compared to the same period in the previous year (in kWh, CO₂, litres, and Rands).
 - 32.1.4 A 'Waste & Recycling Management Plan' will be in place for the building, and all owners, tenants and service providers are to adhere to the latest version of this plan (sample plan provided herewith).

- 32.1.5 A 'Retrofit & Maintenance Policy' has been created for the development. All owners, tenants and service providers will be required to familiarise themselves with the latest revision of this policy before undertaking any alterations, additions or maintenance work (sample policy attached).

33 RETROFIT AND MAINTENANCE POLICY

- 33.1 Where retrofitting or maintenance is needed, the following materials and products must adhere to those in the original design of the building, namely —

33.1.1 Volatile Organic Compounds ("VOC"s)

All paint used within the development contain no lead in the form of driers or pigments. All paints used within internal areas in the development have low toxin emission rates (Volatile Organic Compounds, or VOC's). The total VOC limits of paint used internally in the building is not to be in excess of those shown in the table below for each relevant application. Datasheets from paint suppliers will confirm these levels.

Product Type / Sub Category	Max TVOC Content
Ceilings – interior flat	14
Walls and ceilings – interior, flat washable low sheen, semi-gloss	16
Walls and ceilings – interior gloss	75
Trim – gloss, semi-gloss, satin, varnishes and wood stains	75
Timber and binding primers	30
Latex primer for galvanized iron and zincalume	60
Interior latex undercoat	65
Interior sealer and general wall and ceiling primer	65
One and two pack performance coatings for floors	140
Any solvent-based coatings whose purpose is not covered in the table	200

33.1.2 Energy-Efficient Appliances and Lighting

Oven and hob to be provided as part of the kitchen fit-out with a minimum EU Energy Rating of 'B'. Should alternatives be installed, these are to carry a minimum EU Energy Rating of 'B', or be of the 'induction' or 'gas' type hob. Efficient LED lighting is supplied throughout the development. When required, lamps are to be replaced on a like-for-like basis, with equal wattage and lumen output. In general, energy efficient lighting of LED technology should be used. For any lighting or lamps installed, a lighting efficiency of at least 70 lumens per Watt is to be achieved.

33.1.3 Timber

Composite wood products, such as MDF, particleboard, OSB and plywood are generally bonded with a substance called formaldehyde which has known toxic health impacts. Tenants are encouraged use composite wood products with alternative bonding agents or low formaldehyde levels. Natural forests are being eliminated at an alarming rate. Timber products procured for fitout works should ideally be reused or recycled wood or be sourced from an FSC supplier, with a valid Chain of Custody certificate. If FSC certified timber is not available, tenants should consider avoiding tropical hardwood timbers, rather opting for more sustainable options like SA pine.

33.1.4 Sanitaryware

Any maintenance or retrofitting of sanitaryware in the development must comply with the below table.

Type	Product
Basin taps	If alternatives are installed, these are to have a maximum flow rate of 6l/min.
Sink mixers	If alternatives are installed, these are to have a maximum flow rate of 6l/min.
Shower heads	If alternatives are installed, these are to have a maximum flow rate of 9l/min. All showers are to drain to the building's grey water system.
WC's	Dual Flush 6lt / 3lt cisterns are to be used. WC's are to be supplied by the building's greywater supply. No potable water is to be used for WC flushing.
Baths	Max. 180 litre baths are to be installed.

33.1.5 Carpets and Floor Coverings

All carpets or floor coverings used within internal areas in the development have low toxin emissions (Low Volatile Organic Compounds, or VOC's). The total VOC limits of carpets or other soft floor coverings installed in the building should not be in excess of those shown in the table below for each relevant application.

ASTM D5116 (carpets and other flooring products)

Total VOC Limit	0.5 mg/m ² per hour
4-PC (4-Phenylcyclohexene) limit	0.05mg/m ² per hour

ISO 16000 (flooring products other than carpet)

TVOC at 3 days	5mg/m ² per hour
TVOC at 28 days	0.5mg/m ² per hour

33.1.6 Wall and Ceiling Coverings

Where any wall and/or ceiling coverings are applied (aside from paints), these are to have low toxin emissions (Low Volatile Organic Compounds, or VOC's). The total VOC limits of wall and ceiling coverings used should not be in excess of those shown in the table below.

TVOC at 3 days	5.0mg/m ² per hour
TVOC at 28 days	0.5mg/m ² per hour

34 WASTE MANAGEMENT PLAN

34.1 Bin Collection Process —

- 34.1.1 Tenants are to drop their refuse/garbage bags in the nearest bin collection point to their apartment. If unsure of this location, the building manager will be able to direct you. Note that there is a separate bin allocation for recyclables.

34.1.2 Once the tenants have dropped their refuse off, cleaning staff will collect the bags and take them to the central refuse room located in the basement. This will typically be done first thing in the morning on a daily basis. This ensures the prompt removal of waste. Hazardous waste collection can be arranged by the building manager upon request from the tenant.

34.1.3 The bins will remain in the refuse room until the waste service provider collects the refuse bins. Cleaning staff will move the bins from the refuse room onto the street, whereby the waste providers will collect it. This will be done on a weekly basis.

34.2 Refuse Room Hygiene

Both the refuse cupboards located on each floor as well as the refuse room located in the basement are to be thoroughly cleaned after collection day. These collection areas are to be kept hygienic at all times.

34.3 Displays and awareness

Each tenant will receive an Occupant Users' Guide. This document will explain thoroughly the waste processes inside the building, including the recycling of used goods. Both the refuse drop-off points, as well as the refuse room, will be clearly marked for all tenants to locate. The waste service provider will generate a monthly waste report, which is accessible to all residents upon request from the building manager. This document will present the various waste streams collected in terms of weight on a monthly basis.

34.4 Composting

Tenants who wish to participate in a composting programme can contact the building manager. Should sufficient interest be present, a composting service provider will arrange a dedicated point of drop-off for compostable items.

34.5 Role and Responsibilities of the Building Manager —

The building manager is to ensure that the implementation of the Waste Management Plan is in strict accordance with this document. Over and above this, the roles and, responsibilities of the building manager include the following with respect to waste management —

34.5.1 Ensure the waste is collected daily.

34.5.2 Monitor the hygiene of waste collection areas.

34.5.3 Ensure that the waste refuse points are clearly marked at all times.

34.5.4 Analyse the monthly waste report generated by the waste service provider to monitor waste generation in the building.

34.5.5 Serve as the point of contact for tenants with regards to waste enquiries inside the building.

34.5.6 Ensure that the recycling process is ongoing.

34.5.7 Oversee the waste collection process, from generation all the way through to final collection by the waste service provider.

PART 8

EXCLUSIVE USE AREAS AND SERVITUDES

35 EXCLUSIVE USE AREAS

- 35.1 Notwithstanding the fact that certain areas are part of the common property as indicated on the sectional plan relating to the sectional title scheme, as filed with the Registrar of Deeds at Cape Town, the owner of each unit in the scheme and/or the developer, as the case may be, and his/her/its successors in title, administrators, executors and assigns, shall be entitled to the sole utilisation and enjoyment of that part of the common property, to the exclusion of the sole utilisation rights and/or to the sole use and enjoyment of all the other owners and all other persons, subject however to the provisions of sub-rule 3 5.2 below.
- 35.2 The body corporate shall take all necessary steps in its power to ensure that the sole utilisation and enjoyment areas, indicated on the annexed plan and allocated in accordance with the schedule hereunder, shall be reserved for the sole use and enjoyment of the member entitled to such use, subject thereto that —
- 35.2.1 the applicable member shall be obliged to maintain the sole utilisation and enjoyment area of which he/she/it has the sole use and enjoyment of, as if it were part of his/her/its section, and shall be obliged to take all reasonable and necessary steps to keep such area in a clean, hygienic, neat and aesthetically pleasing condition and shall ensure the maintenance of waterproofing of all its exclusive use areas including but not limited to terraces and/or balconies
- 35.2.2 a member shall not use his/her/its sole use and enjoyment area or permit it to be used in such a manner or for such purposes as are likely to impair the safety, appearance or amenity of other units or other parts of the common property;
- 35.2.3 notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule 32.2.1 above, a member of a unit, shall permit the body corporate (or its duly authorized representatives, agents, workmen and the like) access to and across his sole utilisation and enjoyment area for any reasonable purpose required for —
- 35.2.3.1 the maintenance of the common property; and
- 35.2.3.2 for the purpose of implementing the provisions of the conditions contained herein, should the body corporate so require;
- 35.2.4 the retail component of the building shall be equipped, managed and maintained by the owner thereof. Members of the residential component will be free to access the retail premises in the ordinary manner as customers of the retailers.
- 35.3 As the outside area constitutes common property, owners of sections in the scheme are entitled to the use thereof.

36 SERVITUDES

- 36.1 The property is subject to a 3D electrical servitude area for the provision of an electrical substation measuring 22 square metres in extent and registered in favour of the City, as will more fully appear from the Notarial Deed of Servitude, to which servitude conditions the Body Corporate and its successors in title are bound..
